About AM

At Associated Ministries our vision is for a deeply engaged community, especially among partners from all faith traditions, to bring about the transformation of our community so that all can thrive.

Our programs endeavor to effectively walk alongside those who come to us for services as they emerge out of crisis, find paths out of poverty into personal stability, and aspire to build a foundation of skills, social connections and financial assets.

AM Programs & Supportive Services

Coordinated Entry System (CES) | 253-682-3401
CES is Pierce County’s homeless crisis response system, co-managed by AM. It offers multiple points of entry for households experiencing homelessness to become prioritized to receive housing services.

Family Permanent Housing | 253-682-3401
Rapidly re-houses individuals and families experiencing homelessness. Referrals to participate must come through the Coordinated Entry System.

Landlord Liaison Project | 253-383-3056, ext. 157
Increases access to affordable housing for Pierce County’s Coordinated Entry System by connecting tenant-ready renters with housing opportunities provided by property owners and managers, offering alternative screening options.

Protective Payee Services | 253-383-3056, ext. 109
Helps households receiving DSHS and SSI benefits to better manage their budget and assure that rent and other expenses are paid, ensuring their stability.

Homeless Mail Service | 253-383-3056, ext. 144
Provides a fixed mailing address and other services to offer stability to those experiencing homelessness; referral from DSHS is required to participate.

Community Resource Connection Center | 253-383-3056, ext. 128
Provides unique supportive services and resources that complement AM programs and also helps other community members maintain stability and build assets.

FURNITURE BANKS
NW Furniture Bank
253-302-3868
www.nwfurniturebank.org
117 Puyallup Ave, Tacoma, WA 98421
NW Furniture Bank works on a referral basis serving families in Pierce and South King County only. A family must work with one of the pre approved organizations or social service agencies to receive a referral. Everyone is charged a $75 processing fee with an option of delivery for a fee of $125. If you choose to pickup furniture you are required to take all items at once. This may mean one to several vehicles for transporting items. This is a ‘once only’ opportunity. The following list is a resource to obtain furniture. Most organizations provide a voucher for referral. Clients need to contact the organization to receive an appointment.

(Located next To Nature, South end of the building.) Hours: CLINIC IS OPEN ON THE 2ND SUNDAY OF EVERY MONTH; CLINIC TIME: 12 - 2 PM; A VOLUNTEER WILL BE PRESENT AT 9:00 AM FOR SIGN UP. Treat companion pets only. A companion pet is an animal that lives with you. Will treat only 2 pets per family per visit. Everyone is signed up on one list. We will ask if this is your pet's first visit and get basic information. There are no appointments. We try and see you on a first come, first served basis but sometimes a sick or injured pet must be seen first. Treat spayed or neutered pets only. Our mission is to provide preventative care like immunizations and episodic care like treating a cold or skin condition. Returning for shots or flea treatment: Each pet must be seen by our vet initially; on most return visits a vet technician will see your pet. We do nail clipping during the clinic as time becomes available. If you are returning for flea treatment only let a volunteer know as soon as possible. We are here to assist you in making sure your pet has a loving, healthy life. If you need pet food please make sure you tell us when we first take your name. Please see our website for more detailed information.

Opportunities to Engage & Serve

Paint Tacoma Pierce Beautiful
Provides free exterior house painting to low-income homeowners during the summer months. Volunteers are needed for more than just painting. Applications for homeowners are posted at PaintBeautiful.org.
Serve by joining a team to paint the home of a family in need, or by reviewing applicants.
Training provided. Time Commitment: Varies; may serve one day or multiple days.

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance
VITA Provides free income tax preparation for low and moderate income taxpayers. Greeters and Site Coordinators are needed in addition to tax preparers. Locations posted at VolunteerTaxHelp.org.
Serve by assisting people to file their taxes.
Training provided. Time Commitment: Varies; generally several hours per week throughout tax season

Disaster Response Preparedness
Care Teams provide compassionate and practical support to the survivors of local disasters.
Serve by becoming a Care Team member. Training provided.
Time Commitment: Attend 2-hour quarterly trainings; TBD during times of disaster.

Administrative Assistance
Serve in a Housing or Supportive Service program, provide general administrative support, or assist households in our Resource Center. Time Commitment: Negotiable.

AM’s Community Events

Lead the Way Home Breakfast
Each fall we invite our supporters to a free breakfast to learn about the latest successes and challenges facing the clients of the housing and shelter service programs provided by Associated Ministries.

Amazing Quest: to Understand Homelessness
This is a fun group event that enables participants to actively learn about the issue of homelessness, with a goal of raising awareness and funds to serve those experiencing homelessness.

Keeping Dreams Alive Recognition Luncheon
Each spring this luncheon honors the volunteers, programs, and interfaith nature of AM, with a program that highlights the wonderful work our volunteers and partners have done in the community.

Sponsorship Opportunities

Our Events
By sponsoring our events, community partners support and affiliate themselves with AM’s noteworthy work and our enthusiastic supporters.

Our Programs
Community partners are recognized for making a tangible difference by supporting our engagement programs: Paint Tacoma-Pierce Beautiful, Volunteer Income Tax Assistance, and the Interfaith Women’s Conference.

For more information about being a sponsor call 253-426-1501.
Healthy Communities are Strong Communities

You need more than just medicine to be healthy. MultiCare is proud to support the work that Associated Ministries does to build stronger, healthier communities in our region.
